Street Commissioner Pieratt is making wonderful improvement to our town, and the good citizens should lend him all the help within their power. He is the best or among the best overseers who has ever been appointed, and if the weather continues so that he can give the streets the needed work, we expect them soon as nice as any town can boast of.

Thousands of people suffer with back ache, not knowing that in most cases, it is a symptom of diseased kidneys and liver, which plasters and lotions cannot heal. Be sure and try it now. My theory is that the sap has commenced to flow and the sun is not hot enough to close up the pith, and the sap will flow up through the stalk and continue until it is entirely exhausted at the root; it all dies then, both root and branch. Farmers, try this and you will find it true to the letter. We publish this recipe for destroying briars, etc., and hope some of our enterprising farmers will give it a thorough trial. Remember, to be effective the remedy must be applied now.

It is a matter of astonishment to strangers who visit this section, that our immense resources in coal, iron and timber, have not attracted the attention of capitalists earlier. If they will take a peep at the map of Kentucky they will see that we are located in the railroad district of the Union. The history of this section was a sealed book until the local newspapers brought it into notice. There is a glorious future before this section, and it will become to foster and encourage any enterprise that promises its development. We are for all the projected railroads which propose to enter our section, or any part of it. We want to see Eastern Kentucky take its appropriate place in the march of progress.—West Liberty Gem.

J. Howard Wilson and Miss Lizzie Tipton were married at 8 o'clock last Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Tipton, in this county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. T. Kavanagh, in the presence of a few special friends, after which the guests sat down to an excellent supper. Mr. Wilson is a gentleman in every sense of the word, a fit companion for the bride he has won, who is one of the most estimable young ladies in the country. The Groomsman, Mr. J. T. Woodford, is wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life. Below is a list of bridal presents: Water set, berry bowl, toothpick holder and towel, Mrs. Lizzie Turner; set silver knives and forks, L. D. Wilson and wife; plush hand mirror, Mrs. B. S. Tipton; handsome eight-day clock, J. G. Trimble; set of glass goblets, Mrs. Margaret Chenault; morocco-bound Bible, Trimble Bros.; box of $5, Walter Chenault; bouquet of beautiful flowers, Mrs. Mollie Tipton; beautiful table set, Mrs. Bert Thompson; set of glass goblets, J. ## BREATHITT COUNTY.

JACKSON, May 27.—Dr. Waller Tipton, of Breathitt county, has been elected county clerk on professional business.

J. B. Wilson, of Upper Frozen, was in town Friday and Saturday, the guest of Dr. A. Tipton.

Dr. V. Wilson set sail for Hazard on Saturday morning last. A social was given on Friday night in honor of his amiable daughter, Miss Amanda. At 10 o'clock her friends with cheerful eyes and sad hearts bade her good bye, it may be forever. The well wishes of the entire community go with the family to their new home.

Capt. Wm. Strong was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. J. H. Baker, of Lee county, was in town a few hours Saturday. The doctor is a "jolly" fellow and a good physician.

Born—On the 14th inst., to the wife of James Clark, a bouncing boy. The squire smiles from the Academy to the Pan Handle. His name is Dr. A. Tipton.

The beauty and civility of Jackson at 8 o'clock Saturday morning assembled at the quiet residence of W. T. Hogg, on the sunny banks of the Kentucky river, with their baskets filled with delicacies meet for kings and queens. They repaired to the Pan Bowl, and the sun was far down the western slope ere the quiet of the town was disturbed by their return. Further this deponent saith not from the fact that he was not there.

Thursday A. K. Wilson and Sherman Cope, of Frozen Creek, paid our town a flying visit.

John Riddle, general store keeper and gunner for this district, was in town last week. Miss Abbie Tyler, a richly educated young man. We are glad to have such young men with us, but still we are not willing to give our beloved Brother Cooper up. But Lord knows best, and we will try to content.

We are glad to learn that Brothers Little, Pieratt and Erb are soon to visit our town. We predict for dinner a rich and hearty feast while they are with us, and we can furnish them with the choice music.

Mrs. Capt. Strong and son are the guests of J. A. Tipton.

Capt. Lee Hagins, over the Pan Handle, has the measles. No new cases in town.

C. O. Cardwell is finishing his law office on Pearl street, and he is ready to entertain his clients in style.

A great deal of sickness among the young folks, mostly with heart fluttering and such like.

Captain James Sebastian and A. M. Peters were in town a few days the present week on legal business.

Rev. Joseph Vance, of the Presbyterian Church, preached for us Sunday morning and night. He is a talented young man and has now the confidence and esteem of the people. He was accompanied by his wife, M. Little, who is always a welcome guest in our town.

E. K. Benaker, of Berry, Harrison county, is visiting Rev. T. A. Hogg. He is an excellent and accomplished gentleman, and confers remaining with us several weeks.

San Cole is preparing to build a large and commodious brick building on the corner of Pearl street and Main street. He is a good business man and we predict for him a bright future.

James H. Hargis has taken possession of the post office at this place. The Post Office Department, was in town the 25th and 26th inst., on official business.

After witnessing the dying agonies of the Perry Circuit court we, in company with Col. L. M. Day, arrived at Whitesburg, the county seat of Letcher county, on the 15th day of May. We found Whitesburg quite a thriving town, and her citizens full of push and energy.

The first resolve of the State to have the law enforced in Letcher county, was evinced one year ago by Governor Knott sending Judge Jackson and Major Kinney to hold a special term of the Circuit Court, followed by the vigorous and impartial manner in which Judge Lilly dispenses justice to all parties, have obliterated every vestige of the local war that lately threatened to embarrass the business, mar the happiness and disturb the peace of every citizen within the confines of the county.

Circuit Court, on the 10th of May, the synod, Judge Lilly presiding with his usual dignity, while Commonwealth's Attorney Mays, although suffering intensely from his rheumatism, was at his post.

Letcher is the most remote of Eastern Kentucky counties, but she has coal and timber fields that excel that of some of her neighbors, while her farming lands are much superior to other Kentucky river counties. Her people have no idea of their possibilities, and very vague conceptions of their own wealth. There is certainly a bonanza for this section. Capitalists are reading the signs of the times, and always on the alert seeking to take time by the forelock and fortify themselves for the tide of great prosperity that must inevitably come; and knowing what is in store for this section, they have their representatives there buying land and timber rights, and land rights on nominal prices. Financial embarrassment, scarcity of provisions and the extreme crudity of the people enable them to obtain cheaply the land and timber rights.

The day is not far distant when all the material resources of Kentucky will be developed, at which time the honest yeoman, who will forward to the daily press, will reveal in luxury and ease, provided that he does not transfer all that he has that is worth having to his more favored fellow man.

Landed the distinguished visitor not connected with the court, we noticed Dr. A. H. Stewart, of Prestonsburg, the Republican nominee for the State Senate from the 33d district. The doctor is cooking up a forcible speaker and well and favorably known throughout the district. He will make an aggressive fight, and we predict that his opponent will be defeated.

Hon. D. D. Sublet, of Salsberyville, was also here. He is a powerful speaker and a man of great energy and ability. He is a powerful speaker and a man of great energy and ability.

The people of Letcher favored us with a very liberal subscription, for which we are much obliged.

James Quillen was given two years in the penitentiary for hog stealing.

To THOSE ENDERED TO ME: As you all well know, I am suffering from a long time with neuralgia, and would long ago have made an effort to be cured, but it took money, and rather than press you I put off until I could no longer do so. Now, I am here under treatment and feel some better, but I can't say I am well, and I must be greatly benefited. You owe me money and I want it. You may pay my board and doctor bills. You can pay me, and must do so. If you can't pay me all you must pay part of what you owe, and pay it right now. If you can't pay money you can pay in work of my kind. I have money and will have it, and if you do not pay it on or before I will warrant you. You can pay my agent A. E. Johnson, and he will forward to me. The man who would take advantage of my misfortune is not my friend, and I will not hesitate to push him and make him pay. Hoping all will respond to my appeal, I shall have no more trouble forced upon me, I remain, very much in earnest, Yours truly, G. B. SWANGO.

A Convention of the Republican party of the 33d Senatorial District of Kentucky is hereby called to meet in the town of Hazel Green on Saturday June 18th, 1887, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for State Senator to be voted for at the next August election. The basis of representation will be one vote for each 100 votes and one for each fraction of a 100 over 50 votes and under 100. The county clerk will call the county conventions at such times and places as will best suit the party in the various counties. It is earnestly requested that all the counties send full delegations to the District Convention.

'Throw Physic' TO THE DOGS!

Said a great man, but why afflict the dog, if he don't need it? Yet many persons read an almanac where various diseases are described and symptoms given that will almost convince a WELL man that he is AWFULLY "out of whack," and they are ready to buy "Something to Take," regardless of real NEED. A diseased liver is the seat of the diseases of the flesh. That tired, nervous, restless feeling that goes to bed with you, and gets up as promptly as the rooster crowing, and sticks closer than a brother, tells you that you NEED something to overcome it. A nasty ache coated pill makes you gag to THINK of it. You can't bear the THOUGHT of it! Now, listen! We haven't any great discovery by Indians, but we have a SMALL sugar-coated Pellet that the most delicate may take, a combination of VEGETABLE remedies—the work of one of the best educated Physicians in this country—a formula that we will give any Physician desiring it. If you NEED a LIVER Pill try these. C. P. CALVERT & CO.
